FISCAL YEAR 2015
CHILD AND ADULT CARE FOOD PROGRAM
OPERATIONAL MEMORANDUM #19

TO: Child and Adult Care Food Program Institutions

FROM: Marla J. Moss, Director
Office of School Support Services

DATE: April 24, 2015

SUBJECT: Guidance on Prohibition of Separation by Gender during Child Nutrition Program Meal Service

Background

This memorandum explains the prohibition on separation by gender during Child Nutrition Program (CNP) meal service and outlines select circumstances under which gender-based separation may be permissible. This memorandum supersedes previously rescinded Fiscal Year (FY) 2012 operational memoranda #9 Separation by Gender and FY 2012 operational memoranda #19 Rescinded – Guidance on the Prohibition of Separation by Gender during the Service of Meals in the Child Nutrition Programs (USDA guidance CACFP 16-2012, "Prohibition of Separation by Gender during Child Nutrition Program Meal Service," originally issued May 9, 2012).

School food authorities (SFAs), organizations, and institutions impacted by this guidance are those participating in any of the following CNPs: National School Lunch Program, School Breakfast Program, Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Program, Special Milk Program, Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP), and Summer Food Service Program. These include any schools, child or adult care institutions, facilities, camps (including residential facilities), and other sites, as defined in 7 CFR §§ 210.2, 215.2, 225.2, and 226.2, that are providing meal service as a Program activity.

Separation by Gender during Meal Service Prohibited

In general, SFAs, institutions, and organizations participating in the CNP are not permitted to separate children on any protected basis during the service of Program meals or snacks, in keeping with Federal non-discrimination laws and policies as outlined for the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) programs in 7 CFR Parts 15, 15a, and 15b. Federal law prohibits discrimination based on gender at any educational institution receiving Federal assistance.

Exceptions to the Prohibition on Gender-Separated Meal Service

For co-educational schools and school-based sites:

The Food and Nutrition Service (FNS) recognizes religious exemptions granted by the United States Department of Education (USED) without prior express approval. USED guidelines allow school and school-based sites to apply for an exemption when Federal law prohibiting gender separation is inconsistent with the institution's religious tenets. These exemptions apply broadly to operations including the meal service at a given site, such as a faith-based school.

Additionally, USED guidelines specifically allow for the approval of gender-separate instruction at public primary and secondary non-vocational schools that could take a variety of forms. It is important to emphasize that since the general rule is that gender separation during meal service is prohibited, a co-educational school may not use limited USED approval of gender-separate instruction to justify blanket gender separation during meal service. Limited exemptions in such situations must be expressly approved by FNS.

For other institutions and organizations:

State agencies may approve exemptions allowing separation by gender during a CNP meal service for participating SFAs, organizations, and institutions, without express prior approval from FNS, in the following circumstances:

- Meal service at religious institutions operating under the dictates of the religion with which they are affiliated.
- Meal service at juvenile correctional facilities where combining members of the opposite gender would present a potential safety risk.
- Meal service at facilities that fully separate by gender as part of their normal operations (for example, gender-separated summer camps).

When requesting an exemption, the CNP operator must specify which of the above listed reasons apply and why separation by gender is necessary. State agencies must document all exemption requests, including the date of approval or disapproval, and if applicable, the duration of the approval. We recommend that exemption approvals are documented in the agreement between the Program operator and the state agency.

The above listed exemptions are the only acceptable bases for gender separation during CNP meal service. Any gender separation not based on the USED and/or FNS approval processes is strictly prohibited.

On a case-by-case basis, situations that do not clearly fit into any of the exemptions outlined above may be considered by the state agency in direct consultation with the FNS Regional Office, including the FNS Civil Rights Office and appropriate FNS National Office Child Nutrition Program staff.
